[Last week's letter.]

A friend of mine gave me an obituary and asked me to write, as no one else had. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weaver was two years old, and a few days ago was taken with croup, which took its little life. No doubt but what this child was the light of the home, with its prattlings and smiles, but God saw fit to take it to a better home, and there it will be happy. I do not personally know this family, but they have my sympathy, and I do hope that God will fill the vacancy in the home and dry all tears away. The little body was laid to rest in the family graveyard.

On last Sunday evening, out in front of Mr. A. A. Taylor's home, the rites of matrimony were solemnized between Mr. E. C. Adams, of this community, and Miss Eunice Parrish, of near Gleason. Mr. Adams has a host of friends who wish for him and bride a pleasant, successful life.

There has been more tobacco delivered this year before Christmas than was ever known before. There was delivered at Moss' tobacco house on last Thursday and Friday about 400,000 pounds. In those two days about $32,000 was paid out for the weed by one firm.

On last Sunday morning Mr. John Bradberry and Miss Lizzie Hathcot had the few words said that made them man and wife. This scribe wishes for them a happy, successful life.

School opened with a very good enrollment Monday morning, after being dismissed for the holidays.

I had the pleasure of spending the holidays at home with home-folks. While at home I visited the home of Grandmother Boaz and helped to eat her last 1913 watermelon, and also some fine cakes.

The people around here are spending Christmas by going to each other's homes and singing and taking dinner.

Mrs. Hattie Abbott, of Cairo, is visiting home folks at present.

Mr. Pope, from near Meridian, moved into our midst last week. We give him a hearty welcome. — Begonia.

Watch and Jewelry Repairing.

The Jas. T. Edwards drug store will accept all jewelry and watch repairing for us and deliver same to you when returned. We maintain the best repair department in this section and guarantee every piece of work turned out by expert workmen.

Public Wells.

I hope each and every one had a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

During the holidays several visited this section from other places. Among them were Thompson Nix and wife, of Mexico, J. R. Miles' family; Joe Adams, wife and baby, of Arkansas visiting their relatives.

Quite a number have moved since my last: Will Adams to the Edwards place, near Adam's Chapel; Mr. Davidson to the place Adams vacated, Jim Taylor to the Davidson place, Tommie Jackson to Jim Taylor's place, Ben Fields to Jackson place.

Sunday school closed out at this place last Sunday for three months.

Let's remember next Sunday is our day for singing at this place, if the weather is not too bad. Singing will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

The public school began at this place Monday.

Tom Robertson lost his smoke-house last Sunday night by fire. He awoke about 11 o'clock and the top had fallen in, but by hard work his dwelling house was saved. All his meat and eight gallons of lard, with many other things which are kept in the smoke house, was burned. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Sam Ellis of Ralston is very low.

Will Gardner has moved the new house he built out on the road, back and attached it to part of the house just back of it, having removed a part of the old house, changing the looks of the place considerably.

HICKMAN, Ky., Dec. 30, 1913.

Mr. Joe L. Holbrook,
Dear Sir:—I will give you a brief statement of our work at Hickman. We have a very appreciative people at both our appointments. The church in the country has made some repairs on the house of worship, and we now have a nice place out at Lake View. The church in West Hickman is undergoing repairs, which are badly needed. The attendance upon the preaching of the Word has greatly increased since the month of December came in.

The good people of West Hickman showed their appreciation of their pastor in a substantial way by giving him and wife a great big pounding or the evening of the 24th. Arrangements had been made by the people of the church for a wagon to carry the bundles of presents to the home of their

There are just two ways of Making Flour

THE RIGHT WAY and THE OTHER WAY

We make Flour the Right way
If we made it the other way we would have more competition.

"The public is entitled to the best and most wholesome flour that the miller can produce, but the public must stand ready to pay a reasonable price. A miller who maintains his plant amid cleanly surroundings, furnishes proper housing and employs competent help, uses sound raw material, is careful to sell only the best quality and bards his efforts to remove every vestige of foreign matter, dirt, filth, etc., rather than smuggle it in, is entitled to a better compensation for his product than the one who falls short of this mark."—From the Operative Miller, Dec. 1913.

The above quotation defines our position and explains more thoroughly the message we have been trying to deliver to you in our advertising the past two years.

Poor Blood is Responsible for much sickness and suffering because its quality determines our resistive power. With poor blood we are languid, susceptible to colds, lack natural energy and ambition, and the gradual decline of strength makes prompt and careful treatment necessary. Drugs or alcohol cannot make blood and must be avoided.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is nature's grandest blood-maker because of its wholesome medical nourishment, so carefully predigesting that it assimilates without taxing digestion and quickly increases the red corpuscles of the blood, strengthens the organs and tissues and upbuilds the whole system.

Absolutely nothing compares with Scott's Emulsion to purify and enrich the blood to overcome or avoid anaemia. It is totally free from alcohol or opiates and your health demands the purity of Scott's.

pastor. The pounding consisted of sugar, coffee, flour, potatoes, canned goods, sausage, eggs, canned fruits, preserves, jelly, pickles, apples, oranges, extracts, dishes and many other things too numerous to mention. Many thanks to the good people of West Hickman for the pounding, which we have appreciated. While we deeply appreciate these good things in themselves, yet we appreciate far more the spirit which prompted the giving. This preacher and wife do not care if Christmas would come oftener.
